

Liam was a young lion who lived in the jungle. One day, he was chosen to lead the Lion tribe. He was nervous and unsure, but he knew he had to step up and be a good leader. He learned to listen and look out for his group's needs. He let everyone have a say and led with love. Liam learned that leadership is a lot of work, but with determination and loyalty, he could lead his tribe to success.