

Photography is a fun and rewarding hobby that can be enjoyed by people of all ages and backgrounds. By learning about the basics of photography, such as composition, lighting, and camera settings, children can start to develop their own skills and may even discover a lifelong passion for capturing and sharing their own images.