

Sports can teach children important life skills like teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. By working together towards a common goal, children can learn to overcome challenges and achieve their best.