

Art is all around us. From the paintings on the walls of a museum to the murals on the side of a building, art is a way to add beauty to our world. By learning about art, you can discover the amazing things that artists can create, and appreciate the beauty that surrounds us.