

Vehicles come in all shapes and sizes, from cars and trucks to boats and planes. Learning about different types of vehicles can be a fun way for children to explore the world around them.