

Cinderella wished she could go to the ball, but she didn't have a dress. Her fairy godmother appeared and said, "I can help you!" She came with a magic wand and turned a pumpkin into a carriage. Cinderella could go to the ball and dance with the prince. It was a dream come true!