

Did you know that some of the biggest animals that ever lived on Earth were dinosaurs? These massive creatures roamed the planet millions of years ago, and they came in all shapes and sizes. Some were as small as chickens, while others were as big as airplanes! Imagine what it would have been like to see a dinosaur up close, and to hear the roar of its mighty voice.