

Animals are amazing creatures that are capable of incredible feats. Some animals can run faster than a car, others can fly for thousands of miles, and some can even regenerate lost limbs. By learning about animal biology, you can discover the incredible things that animals are capable of, and marvel at the wonders of nature.