

Dora the Explorer loved to explore new places every day. She would do anything to help her friends and family. One day, they came across a door they had never seen before. Dora decided to open it and see what was inside. They went down a dark tunnel and found a treasure. It was a different kind of adventure for Dora!