

Robots are machines that can do amazing things.

like helping us with everyday tasks or exploring places that are too dangerous or difficult for humans to go.

By learning about robots, children can develop an appreciation for the ways that technology can help make our lives easier and more exciting.