

In the kingdom of Kandor, there was a king named

Kevin. He was known for his kindness and his knowledge of the land. He kept his people safe and happy.

and always knew just what to do in times of trouble.

The kids loved him and saw him as a key figure in their lives. They looked up to him and knew that he would always keep them safe. King Kevin was truly a kind and knowledgeable ruler, loved by all in the kingdom.
