

Clara loved reading Wings of Fire books because they were so exciting. She could imagine what it was like to be a dragon and have powers like fire breath. She wished she could come to Pyrrhia and meet the characters. But for now, she could only read and imagine. She hoped one day she could be as brave as the dragon heroes in the books.