

Rapunzel was stuck in a tower, and every day was the same. She wished she could do something different. One day, a thief came through the door and climbed up her long hair. They decided to go on an adventure. They went down the tower and explored the world. It was a different kind of day for Rapunzel!