

Young Yolanda was always grateful for the year she had. She said "yes" to every opportunity that came her way and thanked everyone who helped her along the way. She was thankful for the young friends she made, the lessons she learned, and the experiences she gained. Yolanda knew that gratitude was key to a successful and fulfilling life.