The military is a branch of the government that is responsible for protecting the country and its citizens Soldiers, sailors, and airmen work together to defend our borders and maintain peace and security.