Did you know that there are over a million different species of animals on Earth? From tiny insects to massive whales, each animal has its own unique characteristics that make it special. By learning about animal biology, you can discover the amazing diversity of life on our planet.